SCHEDULE 1

Project Description

The objective of the Project is to improve the Recipient’s social safety net for children and youth by: (i) strengthening the Recipient’s capacity to administer social assistance programs; (ii) improving nutritional and health status of young children by expanding the AIN-C Program; and (iii) increasing employability of at-risk youth by piloting a FE Program.

The Project consists of the following parts included in the Original Project, as amended below solely for purposes of the Financing:

Strengthening Recipient’s institutional capacity for improving human capital investment in poor families through:

1. support for the definition, formulation, implementation, evaluation and monitoring of children and youth social protection policies, strategy and programs;

2. development of instruments, systems and mechanisms designed to ensure the efficiency of public expenditures in the area of social protection;

3. support towards the building of capacity of SOP and SSD to undertake policy development activities and Project coordination activities; and

4. (a) collection of household data to identify eligible beneficiaries for the Bono 10,000 Program; and (b) provision of technical assistance for development of a targeting methodology for urban areas through, inter alia: (i) defining a targeting scoring formula; (ii) designing a data collection instrument; and (iii) piloting said data collection instrument.

Part B: Support for the Implementation of the Recipient’s AIN-C Program

Deploying integrated nutrition and basic health services activities and enhancement of the institutional and operational capacity therefore through:

1. carrying out of preparatory activities for, and implementation of, the coverage expansion of the Recipient’s AIN-C Program to no less than 1000 communities in at least four (4) of the poorest departments of the Recipient’s territory; and

2. support for the institutional and operational capacity building of central and departmental levels of SOH to enable: (a) UECF and DGPS, at the central level, to administer territorial expansion of AIN-C Program nutrition and basic health services, and to define financial sustainability of the AIN-C Program thereafter; and (b) local level SOH bureaus and units to undertake an homogeneously consistent implementation of the AIN-C Program activities.

Part C: Implementation of Recipient’s FE Program for Disadvantaged Youth

Promoting opportunities for education, training and labor market insertion of unemployed or underemployed at-risk urban youth through:

1. carrying out of selection processes with respect to determining eligible FE Program Beneficiaries;

2. carrying out of relevant employment training programs and job internships in partnership with selected public and private companies;

3. (a) promotion and dissemination of information about FE Program to eligible FE Program Beneficiaries, civil society, training institutions, prospective employers; and (b) provision of job counseling services and employment referrals for labor market insertion of FE Program Beneficiaries; and

4. (a) development of a monitoring and evaluation system in SOLSS; and (b) provision of support for the institutional and operational capacity building of SOLSS.
SCHEDULE 2

Project Execution

Section I. Implementation Arrangements

A. Institutional Arrangements

1. Except as modified pursuant to this Agreement, all Recipient obligations referred to in Article III of the Original Financing Agreement shall apply to the execution of the Project.

2. Without limitation upon the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Section, the Recipient shall carry out the Project in accordance with the Project Operational Manual. In case of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and those of the Project Operational Manual, those of this Agreement shall prevail.

3. The Recipient, through SOLSS, shall amend the Service Agreement, satisfactory in form and substance to the Association, for purposes of updating, inter alia, the terms of reference, the service fees, and the financial obligations related to the provision of management services in respect of the implementation of Part C of the Project.

B. Anti-Corruption

The Recipient shall ensure that the Project is carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Anti-Corruption Guidelines.

Section II. Project Monitoring, Reporting and Evaluation

A. Project Reports

1. The Recipient shall monitor and evaluate the progress of the Project and prepare Project Reports in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.08 of the General Conditions and on the basis of indicators acceptable to the Association. Each Project Report shall cover the period of one calendar semester, and shall be furnished to the Association not later than thirty days after the end of the period covered by such report.

B. Financial Management, Financial Reports and Audits

1. The Recipient shall maintain or cause to be maintained a financial management system in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.09 of the General Conditions.
2. Without limitation on the provisions of Part A of this Section, the Recipient shall prepare and furnish to the Association as part of the Project Report not later than thirty days after the end of each calendar semester, interim unaudited financial reports for the Project covering the semester, in form and substance satisfactory to the Association.

3. The Recipient shall have its Financial Statements audited in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.09 (b) of the General Conditions. Each audit of the Financial Statements shall cover the period of one fiscal year of the Recipient. The audited Financial Statements for each such period shall be furnished to the Association not later than six months after the end of such period.

Section III. Procurement

A. General

1. Goods and Non-consulting Services. All goods and Non-consulting Services required for the Project and to be financed out of the proceeds of the Financing shall be procured in accordance with the requirements set forth or referred to in Section I of the Procurement Guidelines, and with the provisions of this Section.

2. Consultants’ Services. All consultants’ services required for the Project and to be financed out of the proceeds of the Financing shall be procured in accordance with the requirements set forth or referred to in Sections I and IV of the Consultant Guidelines, and with the provisions of this Section.

3. Definitions. The capitalized terms used below in this Section to describe particular procurement methods or methods of review by the Association of particular contracts, refer to the corresponding method described in the Procurement Guidelines, or Consultant Guidelines, as the case may be.

B. Particular Methods of Procurement of Goods and Non-consulting Services

1. International Competitive Bidding. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph 2 below, goods and Non-consulting Services shall be procured under contracts awarded on the basis of International Competitive Bidding.

2. Other Methods of Procurement of Goods and Non-consulting Services. The following table specifies the methods of procurement, other than International Competitive Bidding, which may be used for goods and Non-consulting Services.
